Modern Business Methods Discussed

INSPECTION OF THE CHILDREN WILL START

Red Cross Nurse Arrives to Start Work in Schools

WORK FOR 2 MONTHS

Mrs. W. H. Stroud Heads Annual Roll Call of Red Cross

Miss Antoinette Ahlschier arrived Monday to start her work in the schools of the county under the auspices of the Randall County Red Cross Chapter. Miss Ahlschier met at the court house Monday afternoon with the directors of the local Red Cross Chapter and outlined her work for the two months' program for which she has been engaged.

"While my work is primarily with the children, I wish to be of service to the entire county," stated Miss Ahlschier. "If there are any community problems, or if there are any ex-service men needing assistance, I shall be very glad to co-operate."

Plans for organizing the work were discussed at the meeting Monday. Dr. D. M. Stewart, chairman of the local chapter, and Irby Carruth, local secretary, were present, together with a number of the directors.

Miss Ahlschier states that she wishes to follow up the work of inspection of the children in the schools by visiting in the homes together with the teachers in so far as possible. This will make possible more permanent relief of serious cases which may be disclosed by the examinations. The teachers will be better able to follow the individual cases of the children, and assist the parents in correcting these defects.

Judge S. B. Orton will assist the nurse in visiting the 18 schools of the county and will enlist all of the teachers in securing the greatest possible advantage from the work.

Miss Ahlschier has asked for volunteers among the mothers of the community in assisting her with the examination of the children. She desires two women for each morning and two for each afternoon as soon as she starts this work. Each one who assists will receive a great deal of information regarding the work and aims of the Red Cross in promoting the health program. Another meeting of the directors will be held Oct. 29th at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. W. H. Stroud is chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call which starts November 11th and continues until Thanksgiving. Dr. Stewart reports that 161 annual memberships were taken in the county last year, and hopes that this number will be greatly increased this year in order to continue the work among the children. The Chapter does not have sufficient funds to carry on the work for two months, but hopes that the Roll Call will bring in a sufficient amount to continue this work.

Miss Ahlschier is a graduate of the University of Texas School for Nursing. She was an instructor of Home Hygiene in the Red Cross for three year, and has been in the county public health service since 1920. She has worked in a number of counties in Texas in her present capacity, and was in Gray county this spring, where her work was highly commended.

Mr. Wall has been a prominent farmer in Randall County for a number of years.

Surviving is the widow and eight children, Mrs. Cora Grimes, Amarillo; Mrs. Ada Lamkin, Amarillo; Mrs. Ruby Pendergrass, Wyanoka, Okla.; Estel Wall, Canon City, Colo.; Tom, Roy, Ace and Cap Wall, all of Canyon.

4.53 Inches of Rain Fell During Ten Day Period

Two month-end rains on Thursday and Friday increased the total moisture for September to 4.53 inches, all of which fell the last week of the month. The rain for Thursday amounted to .93 of an inch and was followed by a shower of .05 of an inch on Friday night.

The total rain for 1932 amounts to 20.12 inches which is the largest amount of moisture for several years. However, the greater part of the rain fell in June and September, at times when the least benefit was received by the growing crops.

Ferguson Claims 679 Illegal Votes Cast in Randall

Filing an answer in the district court of Travis county to the petition of Governor Sterling in contesting her nomination in the August primaries, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, claims that 25,000 illegal votes were cast for Governor Sterling. Randall county is listed as casting 679 illegal votes for the Governor.

In filing his petition contesting the nomination of Mrs. Ferguson the Governor listed 55,000 votes as being illegal, and named every county which was carried by Mrs. Ferguson.

In the answer filed late Saturday, the Fergusons listed all of the counties which were carried by Sterling, and charge illegal votes in each of them. The Fergusons charge that in Potter county 1,116 illegal votes were cast.

Court proceedings are pending in both the district court of Travis county and before the Supreme Court in the election contests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Upchurch left Tuesday for the Dallas State Fair where they will show the Randall County exhibit at the Fair. The exhibit from this county placed second last year, and first the year previously.

Mr. Upchurch stated Monday that he would have stronger competition than ever before at the Fair this year. Sixty counties will have exhibits, about one-third of which will make real competition. Owing to the continued rains he was unable to improve his exhibit after showing at Amarillo, or to make any changes in the products shown. The exhibit at Dallas will be exactly the one shown at Amarillo, and for this reason will not be as good as Mr. Uuchurch would like to take. He understands that most of the exhibits from counties of this section which will be taken to Dallas will be greatly improved since showing at Amarillo, where his exhibit from Randall placed first.

The judging at Dallas will be completed Tuesday night or Wednesday.

Valued Relic From San Jacinto Battle Field Given Museum

With the approaching completion of permanent quarters for the Panhandle Plains Historical Society, loans and gifts of valuable materials are being made with greater expediency than ever before, acording to L. F. Sheffy, field secretary for the Society.

Latest among these is a loan made by R. C. Somerville of Detroit, Texas, a piece of leather plaited rope purported to have been salvaged from the San Jacinto battle-field the day following that famous encounter. Mr. Somerville, a graduate of Texas University now teaching near Detroit, came into possession of the trophy through a near friend, presenting the museum with only a portion of the original strand.

The interesting relic, as owned by Mr. Somerville, was about six feet in length and is of a type used extensively by early cattlemen in the southwest.

Alleged to have been picked up on April 21, 1836, the rope would now be nearly one hundred years old.

W. L. Lyons, deputy sheriff from the north part of the county, was a business caller in the city Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Burrows of McLean is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stidham this week.

BUFFALOES TO PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT AT PARK

Relations Renewed After Several Years With Wayland

HAS A NEW COACH

Buffs Will Make Second Appearance at the Buffalo Park

Wayland College has been added to the West Texas State Teachers College schedule. An agreement was reached early Friday morning bringing these two schools together at Canyon, Friday night, Oct. 7, 8 p. m.

These schools are ancient rivals, but have not met on the gridiron for three years. The last game between the schools played in the fall of 1929 resulted in a scoreless tie. It is expected that quite an interest will be shown throughout the entire Panhandle and doubtless a large number of fans will witness this grid contest.

Wayland has a new coach this year in the person of Hughes B. Caddell, a former Alabama U. gridder. He has introduced a new system at Wayland and reports from the Jackrabbit camp indicate that they have a husky, fast, tough, and aggressive outfit, with lots of fight.

Coach Burton is expecting a real battle from the South Plainsmen and is leaving nothing undone in making ready for the invasion.

The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock under the floodlights on Buffalo Field, and the admission is 75c tax absorbed.

Ballots Without Name for Governor Ordered Printed

Mrs. Berl E. Mayfield has received from the Secretary of State Jane Y. McCallum, a certified list of nominees for the various political parties which will be printed on the ballots for the November election.

Owing to the pending court cases no name for Democratic nominee for Governor was certified. Action in the courts during the coming ten days may make it possible to add the name of the Democratic nominee.

Stockholders Must List Shares Held In Power Company

Only a few stockholders in the American Commonwealth Corporation met at the court house Friday afternoon for the purpose of listing the stock. Several stockholders sent in the list of their holdings, and others have reported to J. J. Walker and Clyde W. Warwick the stock which they have.

So far 17 stockholders, owning 397 shares have been listed in Canyon. There are several others who have not listed their holdings, and all are urged to do so before Friday night of this week, as a report must be made to the directors of the Protective Committee.

Two Canyon Men Badly Injured In Car Crash Sunday

Clyde Johnston and Gordon Rice were badly injured Sunday night in Amarillo, when Johnston's car crashed into a concrete pillar at the Rock Island underpass on West Sixth Avenue. Both men were taken to the hospital and are reported to be seriously injured. The car was almost completely demolished.

Rice's right arm was fractured above and below the elbow, his left hand crushed, severe bruises on his head and chest.

Johnston was almost scalped in the accident, according to relatives who have visited him in the hospital this week.

County Judge Is Tussling With Long Questionaire

Judge S. B. Orton received Monday the long questionaire from the Highway Board which was set up by the special session of the legislature for the purpose of taking over the highway bonded indebtedness of the counties out of the gasoline tax.

The questionaire contains a dozen pages of information regarding the bond issues, the use of the money derived from the sale of the bonds, and every detail connected with the bond transactions and expenditure of money.

Judge Orton states that it will probably take several days to complete the information, but this time will be cheerfully given by himself and County Treasurer Olive Schramm as it means a reduction of the tax rate of 40 cents on the $100 valuation with the state assuming the highway debt of Randall county.

Committee Advises About Charity Work

Meeting Held Today in Amarillo With State Officials

Whether Randall county will ask for an appropriation from the $300,000,000 fund of the federal government for relief work, will be decided today by Wallace R. Clark, Judge S. B. Orton and T. C. Thompson. This committee will meet officials of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Amarillo with data as to what Randall county has spent in the past for relief, and for what purposes money from this fund may be used during the coming year.

Mr. Clark has been appointed chairman of the committee from Randall county by Governor Sterling to administer any fund which may be allowed the county. It is estimated that approximately three millions of dollars will be given Texas, which will be spent under the control of the Governor.

Fred E. Wortham, Mayor C. R. Burrow and Judge Orton spent yesterday in compiling data as to the money spent for relief work in the past, and what may be expected for the coming winter. All applications must be in the hands of the Governor by October 15th.

It was the sense of the meeting held Tuesday afternoon by about 20 business men that relief be provided only those who were sick and in actual distress. Those able to do work would be required to do labor in exchange for any aid received.

Slight Damage Is Reported by Frost on Tuesday Night

A general frost over the Plains came Tuesday night, but reports yesterday indicated that no material damage was expected. Tender garden vegetation was expected to be killed, but no other particular damage done.

General explanation of the slight damage was made that the frost came in the light of the moon, and that the plants were full of moisture as a result of the heavy rains last week. However, it is expected that the frost will check the growth of all vegetation.

The cold norther hit Canyon Monday afternoon very unexpectedly. The day had been exceedingly warm, when the wind suddenly changed to the north and temperature dropped rapidly. It was not until Tuesday that the continued drop in the temperature brought the warning of frost.

The temperature rose rapidly yesterday, and it is hoped that fair weather will continue so that the feed crop may be cut before a killing frost hits.

MERCHANTS TO ATTEND SCHOOL HELD IN CITY

First Meeting to be Held Next Thursday a. m. at 10:00

CONTINUE TWO DAYS

Dallas Expert Coming to Conduct School for Business Men

Final arrangements have been made for the opening next Thursday, Oct. 13, of a two day Institute of business and merchandising which is to be presented here by Henry W. Stanley, nationally known economist, under the auspices of the Trade Extension Division of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. Evening sessions will be held in the District Court Room beginning at 7:30 and closing promptly at 9:30. Two subjects pertaining to merchandising or salesmanship will be presented in the form of lectures each evening, and following each talk there will be a brief round-table discussion.

Mr. Stanley is being presented to the merchants of this city thru an arrangement effected between the Chamber of Commerce and the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. The latter organization is offering the services of this merchandising authority in the belief that as Dallas is recognized market center, it should assist in every way possible the merchants who patronize it. No charge will be made for the course and all persons engaged in merchandising, selling and advertising are invited to be present each night.

An unusual feature of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce representative's visit here will be a confidential service to the individual merchant. Mr. Stanley, during the day, is arranging to make visits to the stores and will devote his time to a study of the individual merchant.

In view of the fact that the speaker who bears a national reputation as an authority on merchandising, is to be in our city without cost to our business men the Chamber of Commerce urges every merchant and salesman to attend the opening lecture. No books or courses will be sold following this institute and no charges are made for individual consultation. The service is a gesture of good will toward our city on behalf of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce in recognition of the patronage extended to the Wholesale Market by our merchants.

Time for the Institute, will be at 2:30 p. m., 7:15 p. m., and 8:15 p. m.

Subjects to be discussed include:
The Merchandising Outlook.
Plane Media and Advertising Appropriation.
Salesmanship, the Keystone in the Arch of Business.
Advertising Copy.
Turnover, the Pulse of Profits.
What Do Customers Buy?

There will be a question box conducted after each lecture by Mr. Stanley. His services will be open for us by merchants in store conferences or for consultation at all times between lectures.

Isn't this governor's race a terrible muddle? Law suits, injunctions, mandamus suits follow each other in rapid succession. Charges and counter charges have been flying so thick and fast that the voters are becoming thoroughly disgusted with the whole procedure. Just from the sidelines it looks like Governor Sterling is making a terrible mistake. He was whipped in the primaries, largely because he took advice from the wrong people. His friends were badly mistaken. Realizing this mistake, he should cheerfully accept the consequences, and leave it to the various district courts to prosecute any fraud that they may have uncovered. Election contests always leave a bad taste in the mouths of the people. Every charge made against the Fergusons is making them just so much harder to whip in the November election. If Mrs. Ferguson's name is left off the ballot, you will see the greatest write-in campaign ever waged in Texas. Ferguson has the organization this year—the greatest in his political history. The Sterling forces puttered around and let Jim get away with the election before the Governor even started to run. It's a muddle, one that Texas will never forget.

In looking over copies of The News in past years the other day, is was gratifying to read the headlines, year after year, "Randall County Wins First Place." This was the uniform story of the Tri-State Fair, with a sprinkling of wins at Lubbock, Wichita Falls and Dallas. Only a good agricultural county, like Randall, with a master exhibitor, like W. H. Upchurch could continue the record of winnings that have been the part of Randall county. Every citizen of Randall county should have a greater pride in his county and in the people of his county who are making a reputation for the advantages possible in the county. The farmers of Randall county are doing their part in the upbuilding of the county through better agricultural methods, which are making possible the extensive winnings, both from the standpoint of the county as a whole, and from the standpoint of the individual, as shown in the winnings of the Master Dairy Farmers contests.

The Republicans are almost ready to admit that the Democratic Roosevelt-Garner ticket will be elected in November. Regardless of who is to blame for all of the misery of the country at the present time, President Hoover must take the blame. This is the year that the voters are turning the ins out, even though there may be little or nothing to profit by a change. The president must well understand this situation. The swing of Roosevelt through the west proved very popular. He was well received all along the line, and made many friends for his ticket. Meanwhile John Garner is making a quiet campaign in various places which need attention. The Democratic victory in Maine pointed the way for a general sweep of Democracy next month in the general election.

Whether the farmers will be able to increase the prices on their products through the holiday plan yet remains to be seen. But one thing is very apparent—there can be no prosperity so long as farmers are not allowed to make money. The difference between the price of raw products and the manufactured articles must be equalized, either with an increase of raw material prices, or radical reduction in the manufactured article prices. It would be better for all concerned to have farm prices increased so that the farmer may make a profit, thus having something left with which to buy the luxuries and necessities which this modern civilization demands.

The grainmen are raising the question why the railroads are able to put on exceedingly low passenger rates for holidays and round trips to pleasure resorts when the freight rates are being increased. In 1915 it cost 9c per bushel to ship wheat by freight, and wheat was worth $1.15 per bushel at the destination. Today with wheat worth only 52c at destination, the freight amount to 19.8c per bushel, according to information compiled by the Star-Telegram. That is a terrific increase in freight rates, considering the very low price of the commodity hauled.

Candidates in Potter county awoke the other day to find that they had been fleeced during the primaries this year by fake solicitors for magazines and publications, which did not exist, or by representatives who were not authorized. Candidates, who expect to run for office two years hence should take notice. Every political year scores of schemes are advanced to separate the candidate from his money. There is usually no merit to the schemes, other than to make an excessive return to the promoter. Those who run for office should do their advertising in the regularly established newspapers which reach the people.

Government by injunction received a set-back Saturday when the Supreme Court ruled that the district courts of Texas could not issue injunctions against the enforcement of the truck law, which had been declared valid on a three-judge decision in the federal courts. Scores of injunctions have been issued in the 127 district courts of Texas against this one law. It is possible to secure injunction on most any law, if you wish to evade it. In other words, from the standpoint of the layman, the power of injunction has been greatly abused in Texas.

The Spanish-American war lasted for 114 days; 400 men were killed and 5,000 died of wounds and disease. Yet today from 227,000 to 280,000 men are annually drawing pensions from Uncle Sam for having fought in this war, with a cost of $119,000,000 annually. The people of the United States are waking up to the huge graft in the pensions granted war veterans, and an organization of veterans is making investigation to fight this graft. The cost of past wars and preparation for future wars is the big part of Uncle Sam's taxes.

The big scramble for appointment as postmasters under a Democratic administration is about to start, with the prospects of the Roosevelt-Garner victory in November. This brings up the question, why postmasters, especially in first class offices? They are nothing but political wheel-horses being paid a political debt, big salaries with no work and little responsibility. These postmasters, congressional franking and other expensive frills are making the deficit in the post office department.

A sign of returning prosperity. The bucket shops are opening over the country. Bucket shops are institutions to fleece the suckers. If you are in that class, just step up and take your trimming, as you will most surely receive. Gambling on the stock market is a sure ticket to the poor house. If you insist on wasting your money, you can find plenty of gambling contraptions right close at home, thus encouraging home industry, rather than sending it to the big cities to maintain those gamblers.

That old boy McKee up in New York is showing them how a city may reduce its running expenses and at the same time continue its efficiency. Jimmy Walker, when he returns, will find all of the old time politicians lined up for the old mayor, and the people generally lined up for the new mayor. Jimmy will have a hard winter.

Now comes the report that the new 3c postage is actually reducing the postal receipts rather than increasing the flow of money into the treasury. A committee from the House of Representatives making a study of postal receipts will recommend a return of the 2 cent postage. With higher rates, people are using more care in sending out letters.

Voters in the November election will be confronted with passing upon nine constitutional amendments, in addition to electing those nominated in the July and August primaries. Voters going to the polls should not overlook the nine amendments which will be printed at the bottom of the ballot.

With Tom Love as editor of the Texas Farm Democrat and Jim Ferguson publishing his Forum, you can get all of the political lowdown on both sides and the middle.

If the old time saloon does return, boy oh boy, watch the raid on the free lunch counter. Maybe that's the reason so many of the boys are whooping it up to repeal the 18th amendment.

Those people who say that politics has lost all its kick, and refer to the good old days have only to take a squint at the Ferguson-Sterling ruckus to be disillusioned.

Airplane travel is on the increase, according to reports. No serious accidents with passenger planes this year has increased business.

Germany says she cannot pay U. S. Some of us are in the same shape, one with another.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

A Couple of "Irish" Named Lukats and Koken Are Scrapping to Succeed Marchy Schwartz, Grid Star Lost to Notre Dame Through Graduation

BY PHILIP MARTIN

THOSE "Fighting Irish" from Notre Dame will be staging their typical "Irish" brawls on the gridiron this year! But there's even a greater fight going on within the team itself.

This fight concerns two "Irish" boys who are struggling to fill the shoes of Marchy Schwartz, brilliant back whom Old Man Graduation took out of play at the end of last year. The two "Irishers" are Nick Lukats and Mike Koken.

Coach "Hunk" Anderson lost quite a few valuable men last year. In addition to Schwartz, Captain Tommy Yarr, all-American center; Frank Nordy Hoffman, guard, and Dick Mahony, end, are missing. But Schwartz's position is acknowledged to be the hardest to fill.

Little Mike Koken has the edge on Lukats, in that he played more or less regularly last year as an understudy to Schwartz. Lukats went out of the game early in the practice season with a broken leg. But early season this year finds Lukats as much in the play as Koken.

IN one of the early practice games Lukats was put in the right halfback position and tore away for several long runs, three of which were good for touchdowns. The next day Mike was put in the position and tied the score with Nick by diving over for three touchdowns and making several thrilling dashes.

With such competition for Schwartz's job, Coach Anderson may develop another right halfback who'll reach all-American caliber. With both boys striving to unseat the other, they're bound to play the best football in their system. And, with typical Notre Dame football drilled into their heads, they'll play some of the best football in the country.

Other replacements of losses by graduation concern Tom "Kitty" Gorman, who is expected to take Yarr's place at center, and Hughie DeVore, who has a chance to fill in for the missing Dick Mahony or take Captain Paul Host's place at left end if he is moved over into Mahony's old spot.

It appears that Coach "Hunk" Anderson of Notre Dame is going to have a tough time deciding which player to use, Nick Lukats, left below, or Mike Koken, right, to fill the winged shoes of Marchy Schwartz, above, who has graduated from the school.

Frank Hoffman's position at guard is covered, with the return of Jim Harris, Norman Greeny, Bill Pierce, Joe Pivarnik and Harry Wunsch. It looks like a battle between Harris and Greeny for this spot.

BUT you never can tell at Notre Dame. Stars there have a way of flashing into the headlines after one game. The school has so many recruits to pick from that it is merely a matter of selecting great football players from a group of fine ones.

This year 110 players turned out for the first call. You may be sure that, with this large number to choose from, the numerous experienced hands back again, and a coaching staff well versed in the ways of the late incomparable Knute Rockne, Notre Dame will be hard to beat for national honors this year.

The National Junior Shakespeare Story Club, through the assistance of Miss Flora Terry, will shortly form a branch or association here, according to recent announcement.

The Club is educational in purpose and is designed to acquaint every grade school child with the works of the famous bard in such a way that it will be like play to them. At the same time, the club prepares them for high school English studies, while those who are not fortunate enough to advance beyond the grades will have a working knowledge of the classics.

The plan consists of story hours for the children who will meet and tell Shakespeare Stories in simplified form.

Prizes will be offered at various stages of the compositions and diplomas will be awarded each child who has finished the prescribed course.

The grand finale will be a Shakespearean program with the children portraying the Shakespearean characters.

Music Department Elated; 1932-33 Promises Much

Musical organizations seem to be taking the lead in college activities this quarter. An unusual number of students have already entered one form or another with much interest being manifested by both students and faculty members.

Although private students are fewer this year than is usual, prospects for the best band the college has ever had are evident. There is lots of good new material for the orchestra. It will probably be composed of thirty or more pieces.

Madrigal Club membership is almost complete from last year. The few openings are rapidly being filled. Work for the year will begin Tuesday evening.

Never before has there been such strength in the musical organizations of W. T. Wallace R. Clark, head of the music department and director of the Men's chorus and the college orchestra, is well pleased with the excellent prospects for the coming year.

Both choruses meet on Monday and Thursday at 12:40. The women meet in the auditorium while the meen meet in Room 105. The band meets on Tuesday and Friday at 12:40 in Room 101. The orchestra meets in the auditorium at 12:40 on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The Child's First Books

No one who knows and loves children can fail to appreciate the influence that good books have upon the unfolding mind, or that vile or coarse books also have. The great problem is to create a taste for the good so strong and vital as to destroy the influence of the bad. This may be done by familarizing the child with the best writers, both ancient and modern and showing him the difference between real literature and space writing.

Listed below are some of the good books which we keep on our children's book shelves, which we invite you to examine. They are well illustrated.

THE JUNGLE BOOK
by Rudyard Kipling

A wonder story of life in the jungle centering about the adventures of Mowgli, a child reared in the jungle wolf pack. Grades 4-6. $2.25.

NEW STORIES TO TELL TO CHILDREN
by Sara Cone Bryant

An excellent book for parents and teachers and contains a number of selected and adapted stories. Grades 3-5. $1.80.

HEIDI

THE NURNBERG STOVE and A DOG OF FLANDERS
by Louise De La Mamee

ROBINSON CRUSOE
by Daniel Defoe

The greatest story of adventure ever written. 60c.

SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON
by J. R. Wyss

Not as good as Robinson Crusoe, but often better liked by children, probably because children occupy a prominent place in the story. $1.25.

ARABIAN KNIGHTS

Supplies the Oriental element, which is not found in other fairy tales thus far read. $1.25.

THE DUTCH TWINS
by Lucy Fitch Perkins

Also The Belgian Twins, The Irish Twins, The Scotch Twins, The French Twins, The Eskimo Twins, and other Twins books. Each pair of twins forms the basis of a story illustrating life in different countries, each story making a separate volume. $1.00 each.

REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM

Revival Started At The Baptist Church Sunday

Revival services are being conducted at the First Baptist Church by the local pastor, Rev. J. R. Hicks. Services in the morning at 10:00 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 and continuing through two weeks. Both morning and evening services are well attended and a cordial invitation is extended to the public at large.

Rev. J. R. Hicks came to Canyon as pastor of the Baptist Church September 1st, and since that time the church work has continued to develop with a great deal of interest both spiritually and in attendance

The Sunday School has increased more than one hundred, the B. T. S. has increased more than 50 in attendance and the preaching attendance has been unsurpassed within the past year. The spiritual development and Christian fellowship of the congregation is inexplicable.

If you are a Baptist and living in this community the church bids you cast your lot with her. If you are not in any other local church activities there is a place for you in these services. All are invited to attend any or all the services.

Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:45; preaching services at 11; B. T. S. at 7:00 p. m., and evening preaching service at 8:00. Remember these Sunday services.

Prof. L. G. Allen Making Study of College Students

After twenty-two years as head of the Mathematics Department Professor L. G. Allen will this year serve W. T. in a different capacity.

In his new position Mr. Allen will devote his time to statistical investigations dealing with problems directly concerning this institution. His first research project, already under way, deals with the scholastic attainment of W. T. freshmen. Mr. Allen will attempt to determine the relation existing between high school grade marks and the scholastic achievements made later as college students.

The detailed study promises to uncover many valuable facts enabling educators to improve present systems both in college and high schools. According to Dr. J. A. Hill, W. T. S. T. C. president, the results, revealing deficiencies as is hoped, may subject the educatonal systems of this section of the southwest to considerable criticism.

Improvements Made In Buildings And Around Campus

Improvements of an extensive nature were made on the campus during the last three weeks, many of which are still incomplete. Even though economy has been a hindering factor in campus projects, many repairs and alterations have been adequately taken care of.

The most attractive and conspicuous improvement is the addition of the drapes over the windows in the auditorium. The new drapes consist of maroon velvet with gold fringe and of a light tan glazed curtain. These curtains not only add to the appearance and comfort of the auditorium, but will, through sound absorption, help greatly in improving the acoustics.

The painting of the iron fences on the campus is aluminum in color making them in perfect harmony with the flag pole and the water tower.

Randall Hall has undergone many changes in interior arrangement due to the changes in the operating scheme of the hall. Facilities for light house keepers have been installed.

The old well house just opposite the east entrance of the administration building, having outlived its purpose as a well house, has been remodeled to the extent that it will probably be used as a band house for the Buffalo Band. New floors, walls and ceiling have been built in order to make this possible.

Gym Worked Over

A very drastic change is being made in the gymnasium so as to offer fuller accomodations to both athletes and to spectators. The entire east sector of seats has been taken out and raised higher. This allows the seating of many more spectators and makes room for a new section of dressing rooms and lockers which are being installed beneath the seats.

The music practice house was reworked on the inside, new floors being constructed and the woodwork being refinished.

Several leaks in the college swimming pool have been mended by putting in new tileing in places where there have been cracks and holes.

Several rows of new shelving have been installed in the library to take care of the ever-increasing number of volumes that are being added.

Quite a number of improvements and repairs have been made on the college farm, all the work being done by student workers.

The Pennsylvania State College has found that feeding tobacco of high nicotin content to baby chicks made them grow faster and larger. The same diet in the fully grown fowls made them healthier. The tobacco acts as an intestinal disinfectant, and is said not to affect the flavor of the meat or eggs.

In Tibet, the natives literally hang their prayers on trees. The sacred formula, "Om mani padme hum," is inscribed on mutton shoulder blades and suspended by ropes from the branches of the trees. Thus passersby are bound to touch them, setting them in motion, which, to the nativs, means saying their prayers.

In the Padang Highlands of Sumatra, the women are rulers of the household and control both the possessions and the children. Possessions accumulated by men pass to their sisters rather than to their wives.

Records show that tobacco was grown and used in New Guinea long before Sir Walter Raleigh introduced the smoking habit from America to England. The species grown there is one unknown to America until a few years ago.

While actual fighting in the World War ceased with the Armistice on Nov. 11, 1918, the war did not end theoretically, until official peace was declared on July 2, 1921.

No, the two be-caped gentlemen are not sprinkling the lawn, nor is that mid-Victorian lady really in a swoon. These are simply bits of action that took place when the Philadelphia fire department tried out some ancient apparatus, and equally ancient firemen's garb, to thrill visiting insurance men. The firemen, above center, are using an old Colonial hand pump. At left, a fireman is shown "saving" a Colonial maid. And, at right, Chief Ross Davis of Philadelphia is sounding the alarm.

Roosevelt Boys Fly to School

Most boys are apt to fly from school, but not Cornelius, left, and Theodore, Jr., sons of Governor Theodore Roosevelt of the Philippine Islands. They are shown above as their plane stopped at Chicago en route to the east, where Cornelius, who is 18, will attend Harvard, while Theodore, Jr., 16, will enter Groton College.

A VOICE FROM THE PAST

The following was published during the depression of 1921. Today, the moral is the same.

Said the little red rooster, "Gosh all hemlock, things are tough,
Seems that worms are getting scarcer, and I cannot find enough.
What's become of all those fat ones is a mystery to me.
There were thousands through that rainy spell—but now where can they be?"

The old black hen who heard him didn't grumble or complain,
She had gone through lots of dry spells, and lived through floods of rain.
So she flew up on the grindstone, and gave her claws a whet,
As she said, "I've never seen the time there wasn't worms to get."
She picked a new and undug spot; the earth was hard and firm.
The little red rooster jeered, "New ground! That's no place for a worm!"
The old black hen just spread her feet, she dug both fast and free,
"I must go to the worms," she said, "the worms won't come to me."

The rooster vainly spent the day, through habit by the ways
Where fat round worms had passed in squads back in the rainy days.
When nightfall found him supperless, he growled in accents rough,
"I'm hungry as a fowl can be. Conditions sure are tough."
He turned then to the old black hen and said, "It's worse with you,
For you're not only hungry, but you must be tired, too.
I rested while I watched for worms, so I feel fairly perk;
But how are you? Without worms too? And after all that work?

The old black hen hopped to her perch and dropped her eyes to sleep
And murmured in a drowsy tone, "Young man, hear this and weep.
I'm full of worms and happy, for I've dined both long and well,
The worms are there as always—but I had to dig like - - - ."

If you imagine that this is a cold unsympathetic world, tell people that you have a cold and listen to their suggestions.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 7 CANYON, TEXAS. OCTOBER 6, 1932. NUMBER 4

EAGLES TAKE OPENING GAME SATURDAY NIGHT FROM VEGA HIGH BY SCORE OF 24 TO 0

The Canyon High School Eagles opened their grid season Saturday night at Buffalo Field in a District Championship fashion, by defeating Vega 24 to 0. Thomas' signal calling plus the running of his backfield mates, Ogden Stroud, Wade Johnson and Sewell Cox, kept the 800 people who saw the game in a constant uproar.

Sewell Cox, the Freshman Eagle flash, bore the brunt of the Eagle attack, scoring three of the four touchdowns. Good blocking and interference played a large part in the success of the running plays of the Eagles. Francis Elliston, Leonard Brasuel, J. M. Black, T. Cox and Owen Miller (capt.) played a smashup game in the line.

Coach Barksdale substituted his entire second team in the second quarter. They did not score before the half, although they were marching down the field when the half ended. The first team was sent back in the third quarter.

The only Eagle injury happened to "Little Cris" Wooten, second team left tackle who received a body injury in the third quarter. Cris was playing an outstanding game, despite the fact he weighs only 135 pounds.

Scoring: Touchdowns: S. Cox 3, Stroud 1.

Summary of game: First downs, Canyon 17; Vega 1. Yards gained from scrimmage, Canyon 392; Vega 46. Yards lost from scrimmage, Canyon 19; Vega 43. Penalty, Canyon 6 for 60 yards; Vega 3 for 11 yards.

New Equipment Made By Boys In Manual Training

For the first time in the history of Canyon High School, the mechanical drawing department is offering a course to the girls of the school. Due to the fact that the enrollment has thus been increased, the department has been reorganized and new equipment made by students of the manual training department.

Under the direction of Mr. Barker, the boys of the second year manual training class have just completed a cabinet for the mechanical drawing room, which, with its many compartments, will furnish forty-two students with drawer space. The total cost of the cabinet which will amount to ten dollars, would have exceeded sixty-five dollars if bought from a furnishing company. Thus the manual training department saved about fifty or sixty dollars by doing its own work.

Along with the cabinet, the boys reconstructed forty-five drawing boards, costing about twenty cents each. If these had been bought new, they would have cost one dollar and forty five cents. Again there is a saving of a dollar and twenty cents on each board. After these are finished, the complete line of furniture used in the mechanical drawing room will have been made by the students of the manual training department.

Depression Flower

A queer looking specimen of plant-life is blooming on Miss Jordan's desk in Room 13. This depression flower isn't even a flower. It is a mixture of water, salt, and bluing, growing on a lump of coke.

The flower which has been prepared in Miss Jordan's room is blue, green, pink, white, and orange. This flower has spread over the inside of the bowl and is now growing over the outside.

If you want to plant one of these flowers, don't try to buy seed. Just mix four tablespoons of salt, three of water, three of bluing and place in a bowl with a lump of coke. In a few days the depression flower will repay you for your trouble by growing into a beautiful plant.

Dramatic Club

The dramatic club met in the auditorium Thursday, Mrs. Crump called the meeting to order. The following officers were elected: Robert Black, president; Mary Beth Campbell, secretary. A motion was voted on as to the time for the meeting. It was decided to meet on the first and third Thursday of every month.

Eugene Zachery visited J. M. Allred the latter part of the past week.

Madeline Bull spent the week-end with relatives in Amarillo.

Much Interest Is Being Shown In Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout Troop has enlarged so rapidly that it has proved beneficial to meet in two divisions instead of one. The Scouts ranging from the fifth grade through the seventh grade will meet in the B. division, Thursday afternoon in the grade building with Miss Goodrich.

The Scouts in high school meet on Wednesday afternoon with Miss Goodrich in the high school building.

Each fourth week they meet together in a union meeting. The high school division has divided into three patrols, the Eaglet, the Arrow, and the Morse. Irene Thompson was elected patrol leader and Rubye Foster, lieutenant of the Eaglet patrol. The Morse patrol elected Marye Ella Davis for patrol leader and Mary McCaslin as lieutenant; the Arrow elected Kathryn Robinson and Robbie Lee Foster.

Wednesday, October 11, a song composition contest will be held at the combination meeting. Each patrol is composing a song which will be sung and judged. The patrol winning first place will be awarded a prize.

At the last meeting, the program of both divisions consisted of a lesson on the lashing of sticks. This abolishes the entire use of nails. This method is used in camping trips, for bridges, dish drains, clothes racks, hangers and such. After sing-songs, the meeting was adjourned by singing "Taps."

WHAT'S WRONG WITH EDUCATION?

Any discussion of "What's Right With Education" is sadly incomplete if it fails to include the ideal of universal education. The public schools offer free educational opportunity for every body of school age, with no disfranchisement of class or creed or race. The democratic way in a democracy to assure good government is to educate the whole people so that they will know good government when they see it, and know how to keep and improve good government after they get it. The public school is, therefore, the state's guaranty of good government through enlightened citizenship. The illiterate person, neither appreciating the beneficent function of government, nor enjoying the capacity to render sklilful service, may at any time be a liability to the state. "The educated mind is the guardian genius of democracy; it is the only dictator freemen acknowledge and the only security freemen desire."

Free educational opportunity is not a domant statutory affair; its vitality—and indeed it has tremendous vitality—comes not merely through the generous outdoor policy but also through subsidiary measures that make free school privileges practicable, popular, and efficient. What good does it do to open a door if we promptly make entrance difficult and undesirable? Since parents who are financially unable to buy textbooks would probably save personal humiliation by declining to enroll their children in the public schools, the state protects children against such contingencies through constitutional mandate under which free textbooks are supplied. Since the professionally qualified teacher is prerequisite to efficient school preparation for citizenship, the state designates teacher-training institutions, such as the State Teachers Colleges, for the preparation of teachers.

Since the indifference of parents and the exploitation of capital would keep children in the fields, shops, and industries with no chance for schooling, the state enacts compulsory education laws. Since antagonistic boards of trustees would cut school terms to save taxes, we have mandatory tax levies by vote of the people. Since a narrow, static course of study lacks appeal to large numbers of children who would drop out of schools not motivated, we have multiplied the range of subjects offered to keep step with the range of interests manifested.

Lela Hickox and Wilma Harris were the guests of Gertrude Rusk of Amarillo. They were entertained with a dinner and a theater party.

Hundred Per Cent Loyalty Contest Won by Seniors

The end of the Student Activity ticket contest found the seniors winning with a score of 100 per cent. As a reward they were presented a beautiful silver loving cup.

Canyon High School has been very enthusiastic over an interclass contest for the selling of the student activity tickets the entire past week. Tyson Cox, secretary of the contest, was kept very busy between classes writing "Who and How Much," for the interest was keen and everyone was alert.

Each person who had paid the first installment, 10c, was privileged to wear one of the glaring red "100 per cent Loyalty to Student Activity" tickets, which easily drew attention to the wearer. After each installment is paid, the white admittance ticket is stamped. Three installments had to be paid to give admittance to the game Saturday night.

The management for the respective classes were: Ogden Stroud, senior; Amor Lee Greenfield, junior; Rubye Foster, sophomore; and Mary McCaslin, freshman. Each worked extremely hard to put over his class in the contest.

The seniors received a perfect score, the jusiors 75 per cent; the score, the juniors 75 per cent; the freshmen 70 per cent.

The cup will bear the inscription "Student Activity Winners—Canyon High School Seniors, 1932-33."

WHO'S WHO

It is the purpose of the editor of the Eagles Tale to run a series of articles giving brief summaries of the experience and training of the members of the Canyon High School faculty, which this year has within its ranks four new members.

Mr. Carruth

The faculty is headed by Mr. I. B. Carruth, who holds an M. A. degree from the University of Chicago.

Mr. Carruth has been in Canyon Public Schools for seven years. He began his work here in 1922, as a teacher in the elementary school Latin, after receiving his B. A. degree from W. T., he was elected to the high school faculty. He became principal of the high school in 1928 and superintendent in 1929.

He has spent four summers in Chicago University where he took his Master's degree in the summer of 1931. While in this University, he was elected to the membership of the Phi Delta Kappa, a fraternity in the University, because of his work in the field of education.

He was later given an honorary membership in the Lloyd Green Allen Scholarship Society of W. T.

During the past summer he was employed in West Texas State Teachers College as a teacher of history and education.

Mr. Terry

One of the new members of the faculty is Mr. George Terry, principal. He comes from Olton High School where he has been principal for four years.

Mr. Terry holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Methodist University of Dallas. Because of his work as a debater, he was elected to membership in the Tau Kappa Alpha, which is a national honorary debate fraternity.

For the past three summers he has been doing graduate work in Texas University. Mr. Terry has had several years of teaching experience. Before beginning to teach he spent two years in West Texas State Teachers College. Then he was elected to the faculty of Booker High School where he taught two years. Before going to Olton he was employed at Hale Center one year.

The next issue of the Eagle's Tale will continue this column.

Canyon-Silverton Conference Game Friday, October 7

The Canyon Eagles will meet the Silverton Owls in their first conference game of the present grid season at Buffalo Field at 3:30 p. m., Friday, October 7.

The Eagles are off to a good start toward the district championship. They defeated Vega 24 to 0 last Saturday night at Buffalo Field. This game was not a conference game.

The game with Vega brought out many things, both good and bad, that Coach Barksdale intends to work on this week before the conference tilt.

Chris Wooten, injured in the Vega game, will probably not see any service in the Silverton game, although if needed Daniel Gerald will be used this week-end. Dan did not suit out for the Vega game because of an injured leg.

Remember, it is still a bargain to buy a season football ticket for all home games. The price is $1.25, and there remain three games to be played at home.

Latin Students Are Initiated Friday Night

Friday night, September 3, a special meeting of all the first and second year Latin students was called at the high school building. By going through a certain ceremony, the new students were initiated into the Latin club, S. P. Q. R.

The new students were greeted at the door by members of the club, blindfolded, and forced to descend the stairs to the gymnasium on their hands and knees. They were met at the door by Caesar's Ghost, who took their hand in his own cold, clammy one. Descending the stairs in the gymnasium, they stepped on a narrow board, and after sliding perilously down it, found themselves bouncing around on a set of springs. From here they were taken for a rather rough ride in Caesar's Chariot, forced to climb the stairs of his house, and privileged to hold his horses' reins, which were jerked rather strongly at times. They then enjoyed the thrilling sensation of feeling Caesar's eye and his snakes, and of eating his fishing worms. After these harrowing experiences, the guests were allowed to amuse themselves with several games, including "Crow and Crane" and a tow sack race.

Everyone was asked to assemble in the auditorium, where they were entertained by a speech by Earl Ritchie, a piano solo by Jean Burgess, and a class song by the group. Mr. Carruth and Miss Foster added to the entertainment with short talks.

Scrolls were then presented to the new Latin students, making them full fledged members of the S. P. Q. R. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

Purple and White

"Purple and White" is more popular this year among the Canyon High students than ever before. The forty girls that are sporting the new northwestern purple pep suits are giving everyone a new spirity, and making the whole student body feel more inclined to back the Eagle bunch.

Saturday night, October 1st, was the first time the pep squad had appeared before the public in their new skirts and sweaters, although most of the girls had worn them to school before. About an hour begore the Vega-Canyon game the Purple Peps began their march to the Buffalo Stadium where the first game of the season was to be played.

The Purple Peps, with the help of many other students, kept up lots of pep during the entire game. At the half those in uniform marched out on the filed and formed the letters C. H. S.

The loyalty of the Canyon High student body, as well as, the good playing done by the Eagles, made the opening game a victory for Canyon High and Purple and White.

School Music

Mrs. Jesse Barker, head of the music department of Canyon Public schools, states that the prospects of music during the coming year are very encouraging. There are thirty-four members of the Glee Club. In the violin choir there are five high school members, but soon a group of seventh graders will be added to this musical organization. A band of nineteen members shows good prospects for the coming year. Mrs. Barker intends to combine the violin choir with a part of the band, thereby organizing an orchestra.

Press Club Plans To Give Awards To Staff Members

Although the Press Club has made many plans for the coming year, one of the most important is now being put into action. This is a plan for selling subscriptions to The Canyon News.

Their purpose in selling subscriptions is to arrange for buying Press Pins for all of those who deserve them.

Miss Dickenson, their sponsor, is as enthusiastic over this plan as the members.

Two contesting sides are putting the contest over big. Their leaders, R. L. Burnam and Louise Wester, have great confidence in their sides selling more subscriptions than the other.

If you aren't a subscriber, let the Press Club have your subscription; if you are, let them have your renewal. Call 70 and ask for Louise Wester or R. L. Burnam. They will be glad to serve you.

Chapel

The chapel program which featured the football coaches and the pep squad was opened by Leonard Brasuel, the president of the C. H. S. Student Association.

The first speaker was the football captain, Owen Miller, who urged the full support of the student body and the citizens of Canyon at the Vega-Canyon football game.

Coach Barksdale, the coach of the C. H. S. football boys said, "Eighty per cent of the football boys have bought a student activity ticket. The boys are supporting their own organization and will get as much out of it as they put in which will be a whole lot." The coach also urged the full support of every one in order to help the boys win the Vega-Canyon game.

Assistant coach Cleve Jones complimented the pep squad on their good work this year and their good support of the football squad.

The pep girls, adorned with their new and attractive pep suits, made a formation on the stage and gave several pep yells and pep songs. They were assisted by Mrs. Lee Foster, their sponsor.

From all appearances the Canyon High School students will give their wholehearted support of the football boys this year.

Hugh Whitfield visited Canyon High School Wednesday.

From this variety of magazines the student may select and read that type of reading which is most interesting to him. The magazines which are read the most are "The Popular Mechanic," The Literary Digest," "The American Motorist," "The National Geographic," and "The St. Nicholas Magazine."

The high school attempts to purchase magazines which will aid the students in their studies as well as give them beneficial entertainment.

CANYON CITY CLUB NEWS

Sunday afternoon was ideal golfing weather and the course at the Club was doing a pre-depression business.

W. E. Lockhart won the driving contest held Sunday and received the prize given by Jimmie Gamewell, Pro at the College Golf Course; Hartman was second and Gano third.

Bill Bryant and Jimmie Gamewell turned in cards of 72 net, to tie for first place in the Club tournament, Sunday. T. V. Reeves was third with a 74; J. L. Duflot, Oscar Gano, Hubert Hartman and Frank Shotwell tied for fourth place with 75s; Lee Foster, James Cole, Ed Mickle and R. A. Terrill tied for eighth place with 77s; Ray Campbell, W. E. Lockhart and Felix Neff 78s; Ross Craig and T. S. Maxwell carded 79s; Dan Sanders an 82; Roscoe Davis an 84; and Albert Terry and Andy Walsh, delivered 85s. This was the third of a series of five tournaments; the fourth contest will be next Sunday, starting promptly at 1:30 o'clock p. m.

Another feature of last Sunday's golf play, was the putting contest; all puts for the 18 holes were listed, the fewest number winning a prize given by Jimmie Gamewell. Lee Foster took only 25 putts for the entire 18 holes.

Next Sunday's driving contest will be held at 1 o'clock p. m., and will be divided as to contestants; those players with a handicap of 10 and under will be in one division and those with a handicap of 11 or over will be in another group. Prizes will be given to the winner of each division.

Isn't it easy to play golf? All we are told to do is to "relax the body, start the club back with the left hand, keep a straight left arm, not to let the club go farther back than the horizontal, keep the right elbow in toward the body, keep your eyes on the ball, pivot so that we are looking at the ball over the left shoulder, swing back slowly, gradually increasing the speed of the club as it comes toward the ball and keep the hands and body from getting ahead of the club head, etc." Isn't that easy? Anyway the above is a few of the does and don'ts.

Keep Step in Fall With Proper Shoes

LIKE HATS, FROCKS AND COATS, FALL SLIPPERS ARE ELABORATE, WITH ROUND-TOED MODELS COMING INTO THEIR OWN

BY HARRIET

IF you want to make sure that you are taking the right steps in the autumn fashion parade you will have to watch your shoes. For slippers no longer are the simple, unadorned objects that they have been so long. When hats and frocks and coats decided to go in for more elaborate designs this fall, shoes fell in step.

All the toes are fuller this season. Decidedly round-toed models are coming into their own. There is something more youthful—and frequently more comfortable—about this type of shoe. Heels have decided that it was too much of an effort to climb to their former stilted height. They are adopting a medium design and for street wear they are straight. As the afternoon wears on and evening comes, you will notice, that they grow higher and more curved.

Leather stitching is used as decoration in a running stitch with an all-over pattern. Beautifully whipped seams and edges are contributing beauty to shoes, also. Instead of the cutouts that were formerly popular for designs contrasting leathers are now used. Collar effects of these contrasting leathers are good.

Perforations are contributing to the general effect, also. They are underlaid with contrasting leathers instead of being left open as in the summer shoes. The type of stitching seen during the summer has walked entirely out of the picture but gimp stitching is new.

TYPES of shoes vary. You may choose any one of several and know that you will be in the first row of the parade. The monk shoe, which features a high-cut over the instep, with concealed elastic gore and a small strap and buckle, is decidedly popular. It gives more protection against cold and rain and snow than the usual slipper. Sabots, whose wide straps run down to the sole of the shoe, are also taking leading steps.

One-eyelet and two-eyelet models, made like high-cut opera pumps, opera pumps themselves, and oxfords are all in favor. T-strap sandals continue to be good for afternoon and evening.

Two popular types of shoes for fall are the brown suede monk's shoe, cut high, and stitched in brown leather, shown above; and the gray suede afternoon sandal with black Lyolene lizard trim, below.

Leathers themselves are interesting. Lyolene lizard, which has a high luster with silvery veining, gray suede, wine kid and suede, russet calf, bronze kid, brown and black alligator, and brown python are the newest and most widely used materials. While black and brown continue to be the color favorites, as usual, gray is coming back in a decided manner. The wine shades, too, are following in the footsteps of the wine shades for frocks and coats that are so much a part of the autumn style shows.

Two of the most popular shoe numbers for fall are a gray suede afternoon sandal with black Lyolene lizard trim, and a brown suede monk's shoe, cut high, and stitched in brown leather.

The COUNTY The COLLEGE And CANYON

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

FRED E. WORTHAM, Secretary

County Agent W. H. Upchurch is on his way to the State Fair of Texas with the Randall County Agricultural Exhibit. There he will attempt to hold his own in competition with county exhibitors from all over the state. So far Mr. Upchurch, in all the years he has exhibited farm products at fairs, has never placed lower than third at Dallas. Other times he has been first and second.

The fact that products from Randall county can be placed high wherever they are entered in competition, justifies the slogan, "Randall County—The Outstanding Agricultural County of the Texas Panhandle." Indeed we are fortunate in having as our county agent a man so capable as Mr. Upchurch, but if this county did not produce the things of quality which are exhibited, no matter how good the exhibitor may be he'd have no chance to win. His knowledge of the products of the farm and garden, coupled with his ability and the energy he puts forth in assembling the exhibits enable Upchurch to keep our county in the forefront of Texas Agriculture.

Indeed Randall County citizens have much for which to be proud. This county carried away more blue ribbons at the Tri-State Fair than any other single county. Those who entered competition did so largely through the efforts and encouragement of our county agent. Had the full amount of the premiums been paid as announced originally in the catalog of the fair association, together with the prize money of the Master Dairy Farmer Contest, which is a part of the Fair activities, in one sense of the word, would have amounted to more money than what the citizens of this county pay for the services of their county agent in a year's time.

Still discussing the subject of the Tri-State Fair, we might mention the fact that Canyon and Randall county people did themselves proud on Canyon-Randall county day. Our delegation was the largest group to attend the fair and was the first group to attend wearing badges.

Some few merchants of Canyon questioned the idea of a Canyon Day at the fair on the grounds that our local people would be encouraged to spend their money in Amarillo and that our efforts to "Show off" would help build Amarillo. This is written in no wise as a criticism to those who hold that opinion. The writer has never encouraged anyone to spend their money in Amarillo nor wanted to join in building Amarillo to our detriment, but on the contrary has endeavored to stimplate the idea of trade-at-home.

Nevertheless, because the fair is held in Amarillo it is no reason for us to boycott it. That fair held each year is as much our fair as it is the fair of any other community in the Panhandle. If it is not it has failed in its mission. It is to be granted that Amarillo has benefitted by the fair being held there, but on the other hand she must be responsible for the financial success or failure of it.

When this county carries away more premium money than any other county, why shouldn't we celebrate?

Canyon merchants make your plans for the Merchant's Institute next week. This event is being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and it is to your advantage to be present and to allow as many of your employees to attend as it is possible. Subjects to your direct interest and profit to you will be discussed at each meeting and you are the loser if you do not attend. This institute is being brought to us without charge to any group or individual in Canyon.

During the past several weeks a number of advertising plans of questionable merit have been sold in Canyon, and Canyon merchants have paid out good money to these schemes.

To buy such questionable advertising the merchant does himself an injustice. He wastes his money, encourages such grafting and makes himself constant prey for such cheap schemes.

The Chamber of Commerce offers a protection against such stunts if merchants will only avail themselves of the service. All you have to do, if an advertising solicitor calls on you, is to ask him if his scheme has the approval of the Chamber of Commerce Secret Advertising Committee. If it does, you may rest assured that it has some qualities to it. If not, kindly refer him to the secretary for an approval or disapproval from the committee. This same plan may be applied for any kind of solicitation asking for money.

By using this plan business men will be able to save more actual money than it costs to operate the Chamber of Commerce in the course of a year.

WARWICK AIDS GOVERNMENT DEPT.

Mr. Clyde W. Warwick has again come to the aid of the College library and the Department of Government by a gift of books. A year ago Mr. Warwick presented the library a complete set of the Texas Statutees up to and including 1928. Now the new volumes have been added completing the Texas Civil and Criminal statutes.

This makes possible a study of Texas Government in the light of current practice of laws. The College and Government are indeed grateful to Mr. Warwick and assure him they will make the best possible use of these valuable documents. For the past four years Mr. Warwick has been an outstanding member of the Legislature and has fostered and worked for many of the splendid statutes now in force in Texas. The public at large and students in particular should inform themselves concerning these acts. Only in so doing can Texas maintain her splendid record of achievements.—The Prairie.

New Steel Diving Inventions May Force Ocean to Yield Sunken Treasures

WITH his inventions, man is gradually compelling that old miser, Neptune, to give up some of the fabulous wealth in jewels and precious metals he has been clutching to his breast these many years.

The tremendous water pressure in ocean depths which divers have been unable to withstand in the past has made the sea an almost impenetrable treasure vault. Ten years ago, deep-sea divers could not work below 120 feet. In fact, divers working in ordinary rubber suits anywhere below 20 feet were in constant danger of being overcome by the pressure. But, by an ironic paradox, a frightful sea disaster has inspired inventions which will aid man in conquering oceanic depths.

The disaster occurred back in 1922. On a foggy May evening the crack P. & O. liner Egypt collided with an old French tramp steamer near the mouth of the English channel, off Ushant Island, and sank with a loss of nearly 100 lives and $5,000,000 in gold and silver. Since the wreck lay under 70 fathoms of water, and salvage efforts at this depth had always been futile, the treasure was given up for lost.

Certain venturesome seamen, however, decided to have a try at salvaging it. Attempts to reach the wreck were made in 1923 and 1926 by Swedish and French salvage expeditions. Both failed. In August, 1930, Italian divers, by a stroke of luck, located the Egypt 30 miles from the coast of France.

The immense depth at which the bullion lay defeated all efforts to reach it until, finally, the divers had about decided to give up. But they were encouraged anew by the announcement of two remarkable inventions—an articulated steel shell to be used in place of the old rubber diving suits, and a steel observation cylinder.

Using these devices, the Italian divers of the Artiglio II were able, after almost two years' work and the surmounting of countless obstacles, to recover most of the treasure early this summer.

NOW that divers are enabled to descend to depths never reached before, it is probable that the near future will see expeditions dotting the high seas in quest of sunken wealth. Just now, for instance, two ships are cruising through the waters off Lewes, Del., seeking the resting place of the British sloop-of-war Debraak, which went down May 31, 1798, carrying $10,000,000 in Spanish gold.

Five million dollars in gold coin and $1,000,000 in gems are lying in the purser's safe of the Lusitania, nestling 288 feet deep in the ocean off the Irish coast, awaiting salvage. And, in the Bay of Tobermory, in northern Scotland, lies the wreck of the Florencia, flagship of the Spanish Armada, which sank in the year 1588 with $10,000,000 in its strong room. The sea may soon yield these and countless other treasures to men armed with the new depth-conquering inventions.

The articulated steel shell shown above left, and the steel observation cylinder at right below, enabled divers to recover the millions lost with the sinking of the liner Egypt, and should prove invaluable in future treasure expeditions. At right, above, is the bathysphere, which Dr. William Beebe is using for his deep-sea exploration. At left, below, the first of the bullion from the sunken Egypt is shown being cleared from the sharp-toothed grab.

WHILE not especially adapted for treasure hunting, the newly-invented "bathysphere," a strongly built metal sphere which can withstand enormous water pressure, is being used by Dr. William Beebe, noted scientist, to study the flora and fauna of the ocean floor. Locked within this cylinder, Dr. Beebe has been able to descend to the almost unheard-of depth of 3000 feet, and to study deep-sea fish and plants through an extremely thick glass window in one side of the "bathysphere."

P. T. A. Formed at Public School Monday Afternoon

A Parent-Teacher club, composed of patrons of the public schools, was organized last Monday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. The purpose of the club as expressed by the members is "to get the school and parents to work together for the good of the child." Closer co-operation between the home and the school is always conducive to better work on the part of the pupils.

The following officers were elected:

Mrs. Harry Brown, President.
Mrs. W. M. Robinson, Vice Pres.
Mrs. Carl Laughery, Secretary.
Mrs. W. T. Davis, Treasurer.

A program for the year is being formulated by the aims and objects committee, and will be presented to the club for its consideration. All mothers who are interested in the welfare of the school and its relationships to the children are urged to be present at the next meeting of the club on Thursday, October 13, at 4 p. m.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Mr. C. J. E. Lowndes, of Amarillo, will conduct the services at the Episcopal Church, next Sunday, Oct. 9, at eight o'clock.

At the sermon hour, Miss Daffin Lowery, Girl Scout leader of Amarillo, will give an address on "A Pilgrimage to the Holy Land." She is an interesting speaker, a fine type of the young Christian leader of today, and a college graduate. This "Pilgrimage to the Holy Land" is a personal experience, and she will very vividly show how such a trip impresses a college student.

All college students, both men and women, who have taken or are taking the Scout Courses, and the College Y. W. C. A., are especially invited to be present, and to meet Miss Lowery afterwards at the Little House of Fellowship.

Spinach Makes a Growth of 28 In. During One Week

B. T. Johnson brought to the News office Thursday a stalk of spinach which had grown 28 inches in one week during the heavy rains. Mr. Johnson states that he has never seen spinach grow as rapidly as this fall.

Mr. Johnson states that turnip seed which were planted July 6th came up since the rains started. As an indication as to how dry the ground has been during the summer and fall, he states that it is usually considered the rule that unless turnip seed come up in 8 to 10 days after being planted, it will die. He has never witnessed a period of such dry weather as during the summer we have had this year.

Gene Howe, Tack of the Amarillo News-Globe, had predicted a killing frost on Oct. 2nd. Mr. Johnson stated Friday that according to his observations of nearly 40 years on the Plains that there will not be a killing frost before Oct. 22nd. Furthermore, he does not expect to see much snow this winter.

Mr. Johnson has been a very close observer of weather conditions and his predictions on the whole have proven true.

Certain savage Asiatic tribes place large vessels of beer or other alcoholic drinks in the woods, where the monkeys drink it and become so drunk that they are easily led into cages, not knowing their captors from their companions.

Violins are now being made of aluminum, which is unaffected by atmospheric changes. Their tone quality and volume are said to equal the old violins.

An "over-and-under" double-barrel shotgun is now on the market, with one barrel atop the other.
